Christmas at The Shoppe

The Shoppe at Buckstop Junction is in a Holiday Mood. We offer Vintage Christmas decorations and gifts. Our “Christmas Past” collection has ornaments for your tree: Shiny Brite, handmade ornaments, and traditional wood bead strings. There are Wise men, angels, bells, books, cups & Santas. (Just about makes us feel like elves!)

Our special gift ideas include Vintage jewelry, pictures, wall décor, candle sticks, ND Centennial items (1889-1989). North Dakota hometowns & churches souvenirs include commemorative plates & cups. Knick knacks, vintage needlework and baskets are here. Stuffed animals & dolls from Judy’s Jungle are sure to delight your little people. We have a special selection of Swedish art from Three Crowns.

In our Collectable Books & Magazine Area: Cookbooks, Craft books, Children’s, Classics, Music, North Dakota History, and sets of encyclopedia from 1931, 1948 or 1954.. We also features books of local interest including, Old Walls do Tell Tales- The Pioneer Stories of Buckstop Junction by Brenda Tzipori.

Very special items created by our Buckstop Junction supporters include bird houses and dinner bells by blacksmith Dave Poppke and hand-loomed rag rugs by Roger Fredrickson.

We also have limited edition, WWII North Dakota Aviation Art prints featuring North Dakota Pilots by artist Scott Nelson. These prints are signed by the artist and the pilots.

If you haven’t been to The Shoppe in awhile you will be surprised by our new displays and many added collectable items. Our Christmas Open House will be on December 12th. After that we are open for our Special Second Saturdays 10-4 on January 9, February 13, March 13 and April 10th. Meanwhile, June is here to help you Monday through Thursday from 10-2.

Although the historic buildings of Buckstop Junction are closed for the winter, your visit will give you a small preview of the Historic Town, our people and our mission.

Profits from The Shoppe support the ongoing historic preservation by the Missouri Valley Historical Society (MVHS) at Buckstop Junction.

Our Christmas Open House will be on December 12th!
